If there were an opening for an Elementary position in our school, I would recommend Miss Arhart for the position. She is a person I would like as a colleague. I have enjoyed my opportunity to work with Miss Arhart in my Kindergarten classroom for the past nine weeks. I would love to have the opportunity to work with her again.

Miss Arhart has proved to be a hard working and conscientious teacher. She came to my classroom with diverse experiences, and it showed. Lindsey was always willing to accept constructive criticism and made adjustments to her teaching with suggestions. She has planned extensive lessons and executed them with ease. Lindsey is well versed in the state standards and aligned her planning to the standards. She prepared extra materials for lessons which exemplified her knowledge of teaching beyond the curriculum. She was always dedicated to her lessons and realized the need to adjust the lessons for individuals. Her unit plan on Communities was a perfect example of her hard work. The children loved the centers she set up for our role play time.

Miss Arhart is involved and informed on Kindergarten curriculum. She took part in planning meetings with the Kindergarten team. She was always willing to share her ideas with others. She is also especially efficient at daily tasks from clean-up to filing and everything in between.

Lindsey is very caring and considerate of both the students' and the teachers' feelings. She has worked hard to gain respect from those not easy to reach and has accomplished this goal. Lindsey has shown skill with low achievers. She took the time to get to know the students and their likes and dislikes.

Lindsey has gone beyond the call of duty by attending optional meetings and volunteering for extra duties. She was always very flexible and helpful. Lindsey's strong work ethic shows in her dedication to her student teaching experience. She never missed a day of her student teaching. Many days she came early and stayed late, something often required of teachers. She attended staff meetings and Student Intervention Team meetings. She is both confidential and professional in her manner at all times.

Lindsey has earned my respect and admiration. She teaches in a quiet manner which makes learning fun for the students. She will make a positive difference in young people's lives and I would be honored to have her teach my own children.
